RE: Statement of Responsibility for Legal Costs and Intent to Petition for the O-1 CATEGORY

We also understand that the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) can process the O-1 petition within a 15-calendar day period through their premium processing service, once the O-1 petition is filed with USCIS. We understand this is an additional cost of $2,500 plus additional attorney fees should we decide to take advantage of this option. Otherwise we are aware that it takes between 90-300 days to receive a decision.

We here request that the office of General Counsel identify a qualified immigration attorney to pursue an O-1 status on behalf of:
